

Rev. Don Meeks

For the past 17 years Don Meeks has served as the pastor of Greenwich Presbyterian Church in Greenwich, VA, near the historical Manassas battlefield. He has also served churches in Boulder, CO and Wichita, KS. He received a Master of Divinity degree from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Massachusetts and a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Virginia. His vision for ministry is to invite people to experience and express Christ-likeness in all of life. In recent years Don has been actively working to promote unity and collegiality within his presbytery and in the wider PCUSA. An avid golfer, aspiring songwriter and psalmic intercessor, Don and his wife, Krista, are the parents of three adult children, Turner, Bailey and Colson.
