

Rev. Mark Hong

Rev. Mark Hong has resided in Southern California since coming to the U.S. in 1971 from South Korea. He holds a B.S. in Behavior Science from Cal Poly Pomona, and an M.Div from Fuller Seminary in Pasadena. Mark was ordained in 1992, and has served Korea-American Congregations in southern California for the last 34 years. He currently serves as the Executive/Stated Clerk for the Synod of Southern California and Hawaii. He has been married for 34 years and has 2 daughters.